Catholic—a family who actively participates in the Catholic faith

As an example: An active Catholic and parishioner of St. Rose of Lima Parish is –

"A participating parishioner is an identified member of the St. Rose Parish who gives of his/her Time, Treasure, and Talent according to ability. Each parishioner is expected to be involved in the parish goals in the areas of Liturgy, Education, Community Formation, and Social Justice, Evangelization, Leadership, and Stewardship." - as stated by the Stewardship Committee

By:

- ◇ Being a registered parishioner at St. Rose of Lima Parish
- ◇ Annually completing the St. Rose Parish Stewardship Commitment Forms and returning the "Time & Talent" and "Treasure" commitment forms to the Parish
- ◇ Using parish envelopes or automatic withdrawal for contributions

Non-Catholic families are also welcome to apply to St. Rose School and shall pay a different rate for tuition.
